The work you will encounter is roughly divided into three thematic lenses: allies, bodies, and sites.

Throughout the gallery you'll find a series of icons from The Noun Project, designed to create a "global visual language," which we've used to provide a richer thematic wayfinding experience through the space.

Use this key to navigate the lab and map connections across the projects present.